RELEASE and AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE FOR INJURIES

The Midwest Aikido Center ("Center"), its members, Instructors, guest instructors, or anyone else, are unwilling to have people practice Aikido on its premises if the Center, its members, Instructors or visiting instructors, or anyone else, might be sued for injuries that may happen to anyone while practicing in the Center (4349 North Damen Avenue, Chicago, Illinois) or for injuries that could occur, for any reason, anywhere on the premises or on the way to or from the Center.

Therefore, we ask, in consideration and exchange for allowing you to practice at the Midwest Aikido Center and other good and valuable consideration, the legal sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, on October 15, 2009 that you sign this document and by doing so give up any rights you may have to sue or hold the Center, its members, Instructors or guest instructors, or anyone else, liable for any injuries which may occur to you caused by negligence or any other reason, while anywhere on the Center premises, including while on the mat and including while on the way to or from the Center.

I, (name)_____, the undersigned, have carefully read this document and understand it and in consideration and exchange for practicing Aikido at the Midwest Aikido Center on October 15-17, 2009 and in further consideration as more fully stated above, give up any rights I may have to sue or hold liable the Center, its members, Instructors or guest instructors, United States Aikido Federation or anyone else, for any injuries that may occur to me while practicing Aikido here or while anywhere on the Center premises or while going to or from the Center.
